Madison, WI— The Wisconsin Fire and EMS Legislative Leadership Coalition is pleased to announce a new slate of officers for the 2018-19 year. Marc Cohen, Executive director of the Wisconsin EMS Association will serve as the next President replacing Larry Plummer from the Wisconsin Firefighter's Association who retired. Todd Blaser, Chief of Fire Rescue, City of Manitowoc will serve as the new Vice President and Dana Sechler, Baraboo District Ambulance Service and President of the Professional Ambulance Association of Wisconsin will serve as the new Secretary/Treasurer.

The Wisconsin Fire and EMS Legislative Leadership Coalition is made up of eight statewide public-sector groups and state associations that represent all components and facets of fire and emergency medical services. They are Wisconsin EMS Association, Professional Ambulance Association of Wisconsin, Professional Firefighters of Wisconsin, Wisconsin State Fire Chiefs Association, Wisconsin International Association of Arson Investigators, Wisconsin Society of Emergency Service Instructors, Wisconsin State Fire Inspector's Association, Wisconsin Firefighters Association.

Founded in 1996, this group remains the leading coalition of emergency services organizations within Wisconsin. They have educated and advised policymakers on hundreds of legislative initiatives. Through the WFELLC, legislators and state officials receive information from the organizations that represent nearly 40,000 EMTs, firefighters, chief officers, emergency services educators, fire inspectors and arson investigators.
